Alma Mater

To the fairest high school of them all
We will sing with hearty will
Till the echoes sound in every hall,
Till our hearts with ans'ring thrill;
We will sing of joyous victory
On diamond, field, and track.
Midst the golden haze of high school days
Our hearts to thee turn back.
Hail, Alma Mater, our Alma Mater,
Monroe, all hail to thee!
We'll love thee ever,
All voiced together,
And ever sing of thee.

SONG OF DEMOCRACY

Walt Whitman

An old man's thought of School;
An old man, gathering youthful memories and blooms,
That youth itself cannot.
Now only do I know you! O fair auroral skies!
O morning dew upon the grass!

And these I see--these sparkling eyes,
These stores of mystic meaning--
These young lives.
Building, equipping, like a fleet of ships,
immortal ships!
Soon to sail out over the measureless seas,
On the Soul's voyage.

Only a lot of boys and girls?
Only the tiresome spelling, writing, ciphering classes?
Only a Public School?
Ah more--infinitely more.

And you, America,
Cast you the real reckoning for your present?
The lights and shadows of your future--good or evil?
To girlhood, boyhood look--
The Teacher and the School.

Sail, sail thy best, ship of Democracy!
Of value is thy freight--'tis not the Present only,
The Past is also stored in thee!
Thou holdest not the venture of thyself alone--
Not of thy Western continent alone;
Earth's resumé entire floats on the keel,
O ship--is steadied by thy spars;
With thee Time voyages in trust--the antecedent nations sink or swim with thee; with all their ancient struggles, martyrs, heroes, epics,
wars,
Thou bear'st the other continents;
Theirs, theirs as much as thine, the destination--port triumphant.

Steer then with good strong hand and wary eye,
O helmsman,
Venerable, priestly Asia sails this day with thee,
And royal, feudal Europe sails with thee.
Sail, sail thy best, ship of Democracy,
Of value is thy freight--
'tis not the Present only,
The Past is also stored in thee!
